SOCIETY

TO-DAY is Easter, and the fashionable parade after church, which is a part of the festivities of all Easter Sundays all over the country, will be the feature of the day. Every one in their very best gown and bonnet will plausibly adorn the family pew and take that same bonnet and gown on a nice long stroll up Franklin Street after the last little chorister has sung and departed. Just now that warm weather has almost decided to begin, the window gardens of the West End have suddenly blossomed and all sorts of bright little flowers with which the parade of hats and gowns will vie. Miss Society will most probably have remained in town, though it is quite the fashion to join the throngs of the younger set, have gone to the University of Virginia and some of the sister colleges for the dances given this week, and Old Point Comfort is quite gay with a brilliant lot of guests at the Chamberlin for the Jamestown races.

So many of the younger girls and boys have come back from school for the holidays, and while the social calendar for this week seems to be monopolized by the doings and affairs of the older set, yet a number of entertainments will be given for the younger set, quite enough to amuse them during their short stay at home.

Going Abroad.
Miss Mabel Fletcher, of "The Maples," Parkersburg, who has been spending some time in Richmond as the guest of relatives, will leave this week for Upperville, Va. Miss Fletcher has been the guest of honor at a number of very attractive functions during her visit to Richmond, among which were several dinners and theatre parties. She and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Fletcher, will go to New York some time in May, from which city they are sailing on May 27 to spend the summer in Europe. They will be members of Mrs. Fitcher's party, which includes several Baltimore and Richmond girls, and will land in Naples, Italy, going directly to Rome, where they will remain for several weeks.

Leave for Summer Home.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hazard, who have been spending the past winter at the Jefferson Hotel, have gone to their summer home at Bay Head, New Jersey. Miss Josie Hazard is expected home the last of this month, after a six months' absence in Europe, and will join her parents at Bay Head for the summer.

Prominent Weddings This Week.
This week offers an exceptionally festive, so far as fashionable weddings are concerned, and the numerous affairs incident to their taking place. The marriage of Miss Kate Meredith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, and Max Lowell Talbot, of Brookline, Mass., which takes place at half-past 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, will be a big church affair, and is to be celebrated in St. James Episcopal Church. The reception which will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride will be one of the notable entertainments of the winter, and the functions given for Miss Meredith will be very numerous. The bride-elect is one of the most prominent girls in Richmond society, and society will all St. James Church on Wednesday to witness her wedding.

Another wedding to be celebrated in Richmond this week is that of Miss Mary Cooke Branch, daughter of Colonel Branch, which will take place at half-past 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, will be a big church affair, and is to be celebrated in St. James Episcopal Church. roses and annunciation lilies, and an elaborate musical program will be rendered while the guests are assembling. Miss Grace Munro will be her sister's maid of honor, and James Harold Snell will be best man. Ervin D. Stebbins, of Austin, and Maurice Freeman, of Dallas, will be ushers.

New Orleans society will be well represented at the wedding of Miss Dorothy Muriel Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders, of Virginia, which will be celebrated Easter Monday at half-past 7 o'clock in St. George's Episcopal Church, in that city. The decorations will be most elaborate, and a vested choir will precede the bride, singing "The Bridal Chorus," from "Lohengrin." A number of beautiful girls will attend Miss Sanders, and the reception following will be a brilliant affair.

Miss Mudge Freddley's marriage to Dr. Herant Baron Matteosian, of Constantinople, will be celebrated in London, England, at All Souls' Church, Langham Place, Tuesday at high noon, and will be followed by a breakfast.

Tuesday German.
The last dance given by the Tuesday German Club this season will take place in the hall of the Masonic Temple at half-past 8 o'clock Friday evening, and will be attended by a large number of out-of-town guests, and many of the former members of the club will also be present. The dances of the Tuesday German Club this year have been particularly attractive, and are among the most interesting functions attended by the debutante set here. This week will be crowded with many beautiful affairs, and the German on Friday evening will be no less brilliant than the receptions and weddings that will fill the early part of the week. Henry Hotchkiss, president of the club, will lead.

Box Parties at the Academy.
Some of the occupying boxes at the Academy on Monday night will be Misses May and Julia Moore, Mrs. Portia Robinson, Miss Virginia Randolph Elliott and the Talbot-Meredith wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Peter K. Mayo, Miss Helen Stevens, Mrs. Thomas M. Rutherford and Mrs. Wm. S. Womack, of Philadelphia, will entertain box parties on Tuesday evening.

At the Woman's Club.
Mrs. W. E. Harris will be chairman of the day at the Woman's Club tomorrow afternoon and will read a paper on "The World Giving Better." As usual the meeting will begin at 5 o'clock. Much interest is felt in Mrs. Harris's effort, as she is recognized as one of the most earnest workers in the club.

On Wednesday afternoon, Miss A. T. Daniel will review the life and works of the poet Keats before the Literature Class, and on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, the April tournament will be played, compass wheel being the game. The usual rules concerning gentlemen partners and the registration of tables will obtain.

Installments Issued.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Draper have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Ellen, to Samuel Joseph Harrison, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening, April 26, at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Enslow Avenue and Burns Street, Highland Park. Fancy Ball.

The last of the very attractive dances and balls that have been given by Miss Ella Binford for her dancing classes this winter will take place on Wednesday afternoon of this week at 8:30 o'clock at Belvidere Hall, and the little girls and boys dancing in costume will include the very youngest and most interesting of the little society folk in Richmond. All the children will be dressed as flowers and fairies, and the hall will be beautifully decorated for the occasion. Anna Christain Guy and Elizabeth Robertson will lead the grand march, which opens the flower ball, and other dances will be led by Turner Arrington, Mildred Gates, Florence Talley and Clay Crenshaw.

Some of the children dancing will be Anna Guy, Margaret and Alma Cannon, Samuel Jackson, Millington Blankenship, Elizabeth and Margaret Chesterman, Claudia Shackelford, Anne Brokenbrough, Elizabeth Robertson, Ann Gunn, Charles Valentine, Virginia Crenshaw, Margaret Evans, Virginia Porre, Ashby Ragland, Benella Mayfield, Elizabeth Whit, Virginia and Mary Cox, Marian Leckie, Edith Bowe, Isabelle Smith, Ruby Penick, Margaret and Anne Addison, Harriet and Alice Short, Martha Alsop, Taylor Elerson, Anne and Lella Friend, Besie and Alice Hoge, Emily Bolt, Turner Arrington, Mary Lee Tanner, Gilbert Luca, Mildred Gates, Florence Plazini, Sherry Sedon, Caroline Selater, Dick Johnson, Virginia Long, Clay Crenshaw, Virginia Jones, James Parkins, Florence Talley, Florence Hankins, Frances Roseboro, Cary Anderson, Elmer and Virginia Fry, Anne Benson, Cora Douglas Gordon, Lucy Eldridge, Judith Tompkins, Marlan Norment, Margaret Haskins, Stuart Woodward, Margaret Saunders, Ernestine Grant, Louise Sheppard, Jeanne Josephine and

Louise Blair and others.

All the parents and friends of the children are invited to come to the ball, which will be the smart affair of this week so far as the children are concerned.

To Attend Annual Convention.
Miss Lucy Singleton Coleman will leave this week to spend ten days at her country home, "Beechwood," in Louisa county, Va. Before returning to Richmond Mrs. Coleman will attend the annual convention of the International Kindergarten Union in Cincinnati.

Visiting in Baltimore.
Says a Washington exchange: "Miss Nell R. Lee Murphy, of Richmond, who has been much entertained here for the past two weeks, is spending this week with friends in Baltimore. Miss Murphy will remain in Baltimore over Easter, returning to Washington to attend the Easter Monday ball that will be given by the Woman's Army and Navy League. She will also attend the Dixie ball of the Daughters of the Confederacy, which will be given at the Arlington Hotel during Easter week."

At the Art Club.
Last Tuesday at the Art Club, Mrs. John D. Clothier gave a most interesting and valuable talk on the ornamentation of falcon, painting, and glaze and overglaze, and presented many specimens of work from her own atelier.

Mrs. Clothier was especially interesting in her remarks on "potters' marks" on porcelain and fine china-ware. Numerous examples were presented by the lecturer, and described in clear and vigorous language. Tea was served by the entertainment committee of the club, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Dew, Miss Alice Nelson and Mrs. Brown.

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Art Club E. S. Goodman, of the Board of Trade, and Miss Mary Baughman, supervisor of athletic instruction in the public schools of the city, were elected to fill vacancies.

At the same meeting thirty-three new members were admitted to the club, bringing its membership well up to high-water mark in its history. It is proposed to continue the classes of the art schools beyond the usual date, and will probably include June and July.

Next Tuesday in lieu of the usual conversation, Mrs. Robert Clark will present specimens of Creole, Mexican and Brazilian music, assisted by Eugene Baylor, the well-known composer of Mexican symphonies.

Recent Engagement.
An engagement recently announced in Atlanta of much interest to society here is that of Miss Nancy Nicholson, of that city, to William E. Chaplin, formerly of Richmond, but now a resident of Atlanta. Miss Nicholson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nicholson, and her father was originally from Virginia. She is one of the most beautiful girls in Atlanta society, and the wedding, which takes place June 11, will be an interesting event of the early summer. Mr. Chaplin is prominent in social and business circles of Atlanta, where he has made his home for the past ten years, and belongs to well-known clubs in Rich-

EASTER

BY L. N. RANDOLPH.

When Easter, dawning first to light our earth,
Reveals in life a new and wondrous worth,
When wondering voices cry: Our Lord is risen,
Immortal Love now free from Death's dread prison,
All Nature on that radiant Easter morn
Sings as of old when morning stars were born;
And Angel-visions through the brightening year
Proclaim: The Lord is risen; He is not here.
Sung, because the place where Christ had slept,
The tomb where Faith had watched and longed and wept,
Blest then all earthly paths His feet had trod,
Glorious for aye the highways of our God,
And every Easter morn since that glad hour
Nature repeats how broken was Death's power,
And tells how glorious dawn o'ercame the night,
And shows the only Way to heavenly light.
Throughout the world, all in the wakening year,
Recalling scenes we know Christ loved when here,
Makes such familiar scenes with meaning fraught,
They breathe again the truths the Saviour taught,
For when the world's anew with verdure fair,
And hallowed fragrance lingers in the air,
To Him its lilies fair their incense yield,
And His robes mark them in His splendor clad,
Their royal beauty has made centuries glad,
When wayside trees spread shelters fair and green,
We say He passed through many a woodland scene,
Ofttimes His sacred words impressive made,
Resting—far wanderers—neath some grateful shade,
When fields of waving wheat in whisps low,
Foretold the harvest—later golden glow,
Seed-time and harvest both, the voices say,
Yielded their wisdom in the Master's day,
From rugged mountain and the bleak hillside,
Where straying lambs had wandered far and wide,
The Shepherd's sheltering arms have borne them—found,
Those barren heights—are they not holy ground?
Life-giving sunshine and all-quickening rain,
Forever making heaven's bounty plain,
In blessed truth Christ gently spoke of you,
We learned our Father's love, unvarying true,
And when the winds came sweeping from the sea,
Their rushing filled with life's great mystery,
Hearing the sound thereof—oh! passing strange,
It tells from Death to Life the wondrous change,
Through wave and tempest—oh! how dear the voice,
Storm-swept—despairing? Still have faith, rejoice,
Once more He bids the angry warring cease,
In accents mild now whispering calm and peace,
Bright standards of the Spring again unfurled,
And Easter girls with glorious light the world,
The radiance falls on paths that Christ once trod,
And lifts our hearts "from Nature up to God."

mond and that city

A series of brilliant entertainments will precede the marriage, and Mr. Chaplin will take his bride to Europe for the summer.

Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin P. Jones, of Smithfield, Va., gave a large reception last Wednesday evening to celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary. The entire lower floor was thrown open to the guests, and beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms, ferns, lighted candles and masses of pink roses. In the hall and on the winding staircase were arranged with trailing vines and quantities of Easter lilies everywhere. Misses Annie Lancaster, of Anshland, and Mary Jones, of Smithfield, received the guests in the hall. They wore charming lingerie frocks, embroidered in pink.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Jones were Mrs. V. W. Joyner, in black stain with gold trimmings; Miss Mary Washburn, of Richmond, sister of Mrs. Jones, in pink chiffon over pink satin, with diamond ornaments; Mrs. T. N. Jones, in black lace over white satin; Miss Edna V. Branch, of Richmond, in pink silk, with crystal ornaments. Mrs. Jones wore her wedding gown of chiffon and crepe de chine, hand embroidered, and her ornaments were pearls.

Mrs. J. R. Jordan, in black lace, and Mrs. George F. Whitley, in white lace, and the honors in the library. Others assisting were Mrs. W. W. Joyner, Mrs. H. Mitchell, Mrs. C. S. Forsburg, Mrs. G. H. Hart and Mrs. G. L. Joyner, of Windsor, Va. The girls serving in the dining room were Misses Susie Cox, Grace Goorich, Emily Holloway, Virginia Jones, Mary Joyner, Virginia and Fannie Hart. About 250 guests were present.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club will meet to-morrow evening at the residence of Mrs. S. W. Travers, 692 West Franklin Street. The club is one of the most prominent card clubs in the city, and the meetings held every week are among the most pleasing functions of the year.

Entertain Their Friends.
The following children will take part in a charming recital that will be given at the Leigh Street Baptist Church to-morrow night at 8 o'clock: Catherine Macgregor, Louise Sloan, Maggie Reid, Louise Rogers, Kathleen Howden, Estelle Goldsby, Edward Robert Parrish, Walter Anderson, Emma Bradley, Walter Burruss, Ruby Foster, Lois Collin, Virginia Collin, Lynwood Lenke, Edward Shackelford, Leroy Britton, Ada Britton and others. All friends of the children are cordially invited to be present.

Junior Oakwood Association.
A well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Junior Oakwood Association was held at the home of the president, Mrs. O. W. Massie, April 12, at 1 o'clock. Plans for Oakwood Memorial Day, May 10, were discussed, and the following committees were appointed. It was decided that the floating formal design to be set adrift on the James River, in loving memory of the Southern soldiers who gave their lives for the cause they loved so well, should be a Confederate flag. Miss Lizzie Andrews, Miss Laura Alkison and Miss Mabel Dobbins form the committee.
